

News Observer photo/Brianne Collier

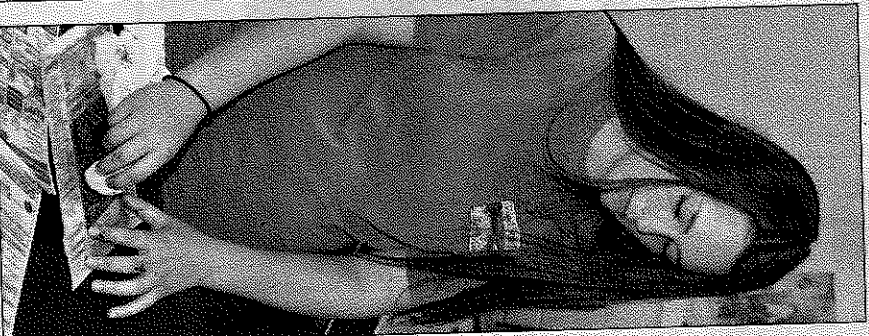

Fannin County High School art student Rowan Shewmake, left, listens to artist-in-residence Pam Beagle-Duresta's constructive criticism on Thursday, March 24, at FCHS during a week long Creative Expressions Program through a 2016 Georgia Council for the Arts Vibrant Communities Grant.

Bailee Cobb, left, with fellow art student Hailey Joslin, display prints from the Intaglio art workshops they participated in with mixed media and printmaking artist Pamela Beagle-Duresta the week of March 21.

Kurstin Shuller, left, and Christian Sauls hold up prints they made through workshops made possible through the 2016 Georgia Council for the Arts Vibrant Communities grant.

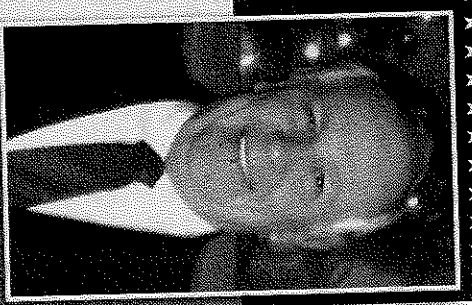

Cassie Bennett in Holly Viccero's art class at Fannin County High School smears ink into the crevices of her Intaglio etching that was then be put in a press print to make a paper print that produces the opposite of a relief print.

News Observer photo/
Brianne Collier

BILL SIMONDS CHAIRMAN

U.S. AIR FORCE VETERAN

- Active Member of Blue Ridge Masonic Lodge #67 / Council of Chief elected Officials of N.W. GA
- Supporter of Chamber of Commerce to Promote Tourism
- Active participant in the Fannin County Development Authority
- Balanced budget for 7 Years in office
- Initiated the process to create new facility to unite Fire Station 1 with 911 Center with S.P.L.O.S.T. Funds rather than county taxes paid by citizens
- Dedicated to continued job growth in Fannin County
- Continue to improve roads and parking areas at the Fannin County Recreation Park
- Fannin County saw the same Millage Rate for 6 years with No Increase
- In 7th/8th year, we were able to cut Millage Rate to an all time low

WILL CONTINUE MOVING FANNIN COUNTY FORWARD
RE-ELECT SIMONDS CHAIRMAN
MAY 24TH PRIMARY